CROSSROADS COLLEGE Music Scholarships

Crossroads College is pleased to offer music scholarships to eligible incoming freshmen, transfer students, and returning students.

No restrictions regarding age, gender, ethnic origin, or denominational affiliation are attached to these scholarships. To qualify for aid, students must:

(I) Declare an intent to major in music at Crossroads College, with music studies beginning in the first year of study;

Complete and return the "Music Scholarship Application Form;"
Complete and return the "Application for Admission to the Music Program;"

Complete a two-page essay on why you want to study music;

(2) Demonstrate proficiency vocally or on a musical instrument by auditioning for the Crossroads full-time music faculty by May 15 preceding the year of initial enrollment;

Audition* includes:

Scales/Vocalizes

Performance of two pieces in contrasting styles from memory Sight-reading on your instrument or vocally

- (3) Interview with Crossroads music faculty (may be done at same time as audition);
- (4) Supply 2 letters of reference from music minister and/or music teacher(s);
- (5) Show commitment to the Christian ideals of the college;
- (6) Maintain a music GPA (courses prefixed MUS) of 2.5 or better in addition to meeting satisfactory academic progress requirements of the college;
- (7) Remain a full-time music major at the college for each semester you receive the scholarship.

Awardees are chosen by Crossroads College's full-time music faculty.

*Live auditions are preferred. However, if you are unable to audition in person, a videotaped performance may be substituted. Contact the music department regarding scales and alternate material for the sight-reading requirement. Include a two-page essay on why you want to study music. The deadline for submission of scholarship audition tapes is May 15 prior to the year of initial enrollment. You are also encouraged to apply for federal and state financial aid.

Submitted items will not be returned.
